

PRACTICE 5

JOINS

1. Write a query to display the first_name, department number, and department name for employees.
2. Create a unique listing of all jobs that are in department 30.
3. Write a query to display the employee name, department name and location of all employees who earn a commission.
4. Display the employee first_name and department name for all employees who have an A in their name.
5. Write a query to display the first_name, job_function, department name for all employees who work in DALLAS.
6. Display the employee name and employee number along with their manager's name and manager number. Label the columns Employee, Emp#, Manager, and Mrg#, respectively.
7. Modify the above query to display all employees including King, who has no manager.
8. Create a query that will display the employee name, department number, and all the employees that work in the same department as a given employee. Give each column an appropriate label.
9. Create a query that will display the first_name, salary, and grade for all employees.
10. Create a query to display the name and hire date of any employee hired after employee Blake.
11. Display employees' names and hire dates along with their manager's name and hire date for all employees who were hired before their managers. Label the columns Employee, Emp hire date , manager, and Mgr hiredate, respectively.